

Stop it now

Are you worried about someone's sexual behaviour towards children?

Our anonymous Stop It Now helpline, email and chat can support:

- people who have sexual thoughts about children or have offended online or offline
- family members whose loved one has behaved sexually towards children
- parents whose children have displayed harmful sexual behaviour or are at risk of being abused
- professionals/volunteers working with children or adults affected by sexual abuse
- adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse

Trust your instincts and talk to us to help stop child sexual abuse.

Anonymous helpline: 0808 1000 900
(including live translation)

Email, chat and information: stopitnow.org.uk

