

Y6 PUPIL VOICE

Different to normal

Piper preferred normal type because we get more done than today as I didn't understand.

Ewan felt today's went too fast- 4 minute timer for each.

Normally: read a chapter of the book Holes and then answer questions- don't really get to talk about it. Mr Buxton normally reads out loud and then we read one at a time- don't do echo or choral.

Holes has interesting bits but not quite as adventurous as some. Ewan said too many boring bits.

We usually write in our books.

We think we had to rush too much today.

Mr Buxton doesn't normally tell us if we are doing a skill.

Enjoyment depends on the book. If we didn't get it then we would ask our partner or sometimes the teacher. He's not always clear but he will always try to help you.

Time would help either way and so would discussing with your partner.

Behaviour isn't quite as good normally but not awful.

Y3: FL, RJB, PCH

Y4: EJ, HLB, AD

What is guided reading?

Y3: Story or a sheet and do things about it. Read a text or book and answer questions on a sheet. Look through the text for the answers. You learn new things about the texts and new information. Stone Age book is really fun

Y4: All about a book and answering questions- sometimes on a sheet and sometimes you write into your book. You answer questions about the book

Can you tell me about a book you've read and liked?

Stone Age Boy

Anglo Saxon Boy

Owl who was afraid of the dark

The day the crayons quit

In guided reading, do you always write every lesson

Not always, sometimes we just talk about it and sometimes we just read.

We used to read and write answers, now we don't always write. Which is best?

Mixture

Do you ever get to talk about books that you like or recommend to each other?

Y4: we did in Y3

Y3: no we don't

Fran: We pick a book that we want reading to us but not in guided reading

In Y3 we get to vote on which book we are reading or is being read to us.

Albie: the teacher decides if we finish a book or not

Y5: Ed Smith, Eliza Moston, Lily Owen

What is guided reading?

Funs ubject where we read a book and we talk about the book and what we think about it nd sometimes we do a little book review or a quiz on it and sometimes we get to choose the book and we answer questions- talking anf sometimes writing down. Someties we di a little sheet at the end

Can you tell me about a book you've read and liked?

Macbeth because I like Shakespeare.

I also like Charlie and the Chocolate Factory last year.

Who chooses the book?

Sometimes it's already chosen or us and sometimes we get a vote?

Do you write every guided reading lesson?

Not every lesson, sometimes they're not long enough to write. Sometimes we draw a picture about the book and sometimes. Sometimes we do acting and use the book like a script. We squeeze guided reading in before or after break if we haven't done it.

Do you do it every day?

Not every day but sometime we just read a page and that's it.

Do you ever get to talk about books that you like or recommend to each other?

Yes we do but normally just at the end of the day. Normally we talk about them more than actually.
